A Cultural Tour of The National Palace Museum 3 In Itinerary

All of the conference participants (IPA members, IPA candidates, and non- members) are welcomed to join the cultural tour of the National Palace Museum on the evening of Friday 5th May. The National Palace Museum is widely known as its collection of art and artifacts of Chinese heritage, which consists of paintings, antiquities, calligraphies, rare books and documents. Visiting the museum is a great opportunity for you to appreciate these precious masterpieces and understand more about Chinese culture and history. The tour includes transportation (shuttle bus from the Regent Taipei to the National Palace Museum) and entrance ticket. If you would like to join this tour, please register at the same time as you complete the registration with the IPA Asia-Pacific Conference. Transportation from the REgent Hotel and entrance tickets are included.
