

REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENT – Latin America-

-QUALIFICATIONS

The Regional VP should be able to communicate in his/her regional language and in English (official language), have the disposition –and to be available- for traveling and attend to different regional congresses (FEPAL, EPF, etc) to the international congresses (IPA Congress) and annual IPSO meetings.

-IPSO REPRESENTATION

During the events and in his/her psychoanalytic Society, the Regional VP should to be available to speak, explain and promote IPSO programs, socialize during events –when was invited or attending as a IPSO Rep- and recruit Reps and members. Represents his/her region on its best interest as an officer and representative of IPSO, not as an officer (Rep) of his/her own Society anymore. He/She should become a reference for candidates of his/her region, and help solve matters to the best possible outcome

-TRAIN VP ELECT

The regional VP should create a tailor made VP Training Plan with the new VP elect in order to facilitate his/her learning and adaptation for the new role and responsibilities. Also, could look for interested members for following postulations in IPSO ExCom elections.

-PROJECTS

The regional VP should support Reps in planning and executing projects, especially following the accepted format as the Delocalization program and evaluate every new idea and suggestions for event and IPSO institutional participation. Should conceptualize, plan and execute regional Congress as a Chair of IPSO teams in regional events or inter-regional events as needed. Also, should identify reviewers of the IPSO Paper and be a reference for using the IPSO resources in facilitating IPSO awarded members' attendance to the Congress or event and if needed – the CRESP program.

-COMMUNICATIONS

The regional VP should communicate regularly with VP Elect, EXCOM, Reps, candidates, other regional psychoanalytic organizations; share planning, information and materials with Reps; use institutional email, participating in regional and international WhatsApp groups and attend online and in-person meetings.

-REPORTS

Regional VP must write his-her own regional reports twice a year for Newsletters, EXCOM business meetings & Congresses and follow the protocols for them. Should be able to present reports using digital communication programs and applications as needed. The regional VP should collect written material and IPSO photos that can preserve and document the IPSO participation in IPSO events and activities.

-FINANCIAL

In Latin America should be in charge of collecting the dues each time that specific societies aren't able to pay the dues using the IPSO bank, provide bank information to members and societies, disseminate changes in dues, discount programs and be a mediator between IPSO treasure and members or societies with financial difficulties in order to help resolve the difficulties.